SPRING HOUSE, PA - Steven J. Szydlowski, DHA, of the University of Scranton, has been named the 2025 CAHME/Dolores Clement Fellow of the Year Award Recipient.

This award recognizes a fellow that is nominated by other site visitors and programs visited, has a history of service as a fellow, for helping programs to succeed, and demonstrates a commitment to advance the quality of healthcare management education.. The award was presented during the 10th Annual CAHME Awards Ceremony at the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) Congress on Healthcare Leadership on March 23, 2025.

“These awards honor individuals who show an unwavering commitment to driving meaningful change in healthcare,” said Anthony Stanowski, DHA, FACHE, President and CEO of CAHME.

"It is an honor to be the recipient of the CAHME/Dr. Dolores Clement Fellow of the Year Award. Dr. Clement has not only been a friend and colleague over the past two decades, but a mentor. She demonstrates qualities of integrity, rigor, compassion, and commitment to excellence among many others. My service to CAHME as a site member, standards council member, and other roles have provided me with the invaluable experience to learn and share best practices in Graduate Health Management Education with peers in academia and industry. I am grateful, humbled, and will continue to support the mission of CAHME to advance the quality of Healthcare Management Education," said Steven J. Szydlowski, DHA.
