Overview

The CAHME/Olin Oedekoven Most Improved Student Scholarship

The CAHME/Olin Oedekoven Most Improved Student Scholarship recognizes a student who has demonstrated exceptional growth and improvement during their graduate studies in healthcare management. This scholarship is made possible through CAHME's long-standing partnership with Peregrine Global Services—a global leader in higher education services providing online assessment and instructional solutions to more than 500 institutions worldwide—and the Peregrine Global Foundation, which funds this scholarship. Peregrine Global Services' generosity over the years has supported key CAHME initiatives that serve our mission to advance the quality of healthcare management education, including the upcoming CAHME Boot Camp on March 1, 2026.

Nominees for this award exemplify perseverance, self-reflection, and a commitment to continuous learning—qualities that reflect Dr. Olin Oedekoven's belief in personal and professional development. Applicants are encouraged to share how they have experienced meaningful change and how that transformation has shaped their path as a healthcare leader.
